

I object to the proposal that would have the effect of limiting satellite radio providers such as "XM Radio" from offering local traffic conditions and other broadcasting issues of local interest. Such a proposal at the very least is anti-competitive and, if not a violation of the anti-trust rules due to protected industry status, would at the very least exacerbate a breach in spirit of the anti-trust rules and not be in the best interests of the general public.